Peace Corps and Your Identities Abroad

Date and Time:
Tuesday, November 12, 2019 - 6:00pm to 7:00pm
Location:
Jeffries Hall (701 South State Street)
Room:
1050

Description: Once Volunteers arrive at their sites, diversity and inclusion principles remain the same but take on a different shape. You may be in the minority, if not the sole American like you, at your site. You will begin to notice diversity in perspectives, ethnicity, age, gender roles, depth of conversation, and degree of support you may receive—and may need to make adjustments. This will be a session to hear from Returned Volunteers about how you can:

- transcend differences during your time abroad
- find common ground and server as alley for your peers and fellow volunteers
