Making the Most of your International Experience: Career Competencies Employers Look for and How to Get Them with the University Career Center

Description: This workshop will cover a range of topics to help you make the most of your international internship this summer, including:

- What to do when the work you are asked to do seems very different than what you expected
- Tips for approaching your supervisor to discuss topics such as projects you'd like to work on and concerns
- What specific skills do you hope to gain this summer and how do these fit in with the top skills employers look for

This workshop is open to all students and will be facilitated by the University Career Center. Also, U-M students with prior international work experience will be present to give advice based on their own experiences abroad!

Food will be provided. Please RSVP here [2].
