

I-765 and I-131 Filings

When filing the AOS, USCIS now charges separate filing fees for the optional EAD (I-765) and Advance Parole (I-131). While the legal fees for these applications are included in the normal legal fee, the filing fees are not. These fees may be paid by the unit. Filing fees are $490 (I-765) and $585 (I-131). The I-765 and I-131 filings based on an Adjustment of Status application that was filed on or after July 30, 2007 but before 10/2/2020, do not require a separate filing fee. On hold due to USCIS legal challenge.
