Kerrytown District Guided Tour

Date and Time:
Saturday, August 25, 2018 - 10:00am to 1:00pm

Tour Guide: Jeanne Horvath

Description: Join us for a guided tour of the Kerrytown district, a very interesting and historic part of Ann Arbor. One highlight of this neighborhood is the Ann Arbor Farmers’ Market, an open-air marketplace which features locally grown food, plants, prepared food items, and crafts, all sold by the people who grow them or make them. The Kerrytown district also includes the nationally-known Zingerman's Delicatessen, and the People's Food Coop, a community-owned natural foods grocery store, as well as many other interesting shops and buildings.

Cost: Most vendors take cash only, while some take credit cards directly. Please wear comfortable shoes and bring money for purchasing produce at the Farmers Market or other shopping. No pre-registration is required.

Meeting Location: outside the Student Activities Building on Jefferson Street
