

North Campus Tour

[1]

Description: The 800 acres of rolling hills and mature trees which we know as North Campus today were cleared by pioneers in 1860 and farmed until the U-M bought North Campus in 1952. We will visit some of the key buildings and landmarks to help you familiarize with North Campus.

Cost: Free and no pre-registration is required.

Meeting Location: meet by the Campus Information Center located in the lobby of Pierpont Commons [2].
