Peace Corps Prep Information Session

Date and Time:
Wednesday, January 24, 2018 - 12:00pm to 1:00pm

Location:
International Center

Room:
Conference Room

Description: Planning on applying to the Peace Corps or other international service program? Make sure you're the most prepared candidate possible by participating in Peace Corps Prep, which launched at the University of Michigan in the Fall! Through coursework and extracurricular experiences, the program will facilitate student development within the following four core competencies: sector-specific skills, foreign language proficiency, intercultural competency, and leadership. Learn more at our upcoming information session!
